LOCAL EDUCATIONAL COURSES IN SPORT & PHYSICAL EDUCATION
This book was a gift from

Hong Kong Sports Development Board
The Hong Kong Sports Development Board (SDB), established in April 1990, is a statutory body responsible for promoting and developing sport and physical recreation in Hong Kong. The work has been largely facilitated by the cooperation of the two Provisional Municipal Councils, the Sports Federation and Olympic Committee of Hong Kong, China, the National Sports Associations, and other relevant bodies.

One of the action steps identified by the SDB for Sports Education is to produce and disseminate information on training opportunities for persons working in the sports.

This booklet is intended to provide information on existing local educational courses in sport and physical education for perusal by those interested in developing a career in sport and recreation.

These days things change so quickly that no publication can be entirely up-to-date. Courses may alter in content and availability. Readers are encouraged to contact the appropriate institution listed at the end of this booklet, in order to obtain the latest and most accurate information.

The SDB wishes to acknowledge the assistance and co-operation of the various institutions in providing the details of courses contained in this booklet.

The philosophy and objectives of this programme are to produce a thinking physical education teacher. One who will make use of the knowledge gained in the theoretical courses by applying it to his/her teaching of practical activities in school and community situations. The nature of the physical education component of the degree is such that it provides a strong theoretical scientific and socio-cultural basis to underpin the practical activities which would form the content of any school or community physical education curriculum. The programme will enable the student to learn how to teach a wide variety of practical activities which are both suitable and culturally appropriate to meet the needs of children in Hong Kong schools.
